 Cross Country Conditions of Use

Use of Private Property

Land Owners allow the club to use their properties on the basis that club members do so ENTIRELY AT THEIR OWN RISK.

Standard of Behaviour

Club members are expected to take all care to:-

- Remember not all Cross Country courses have toilet facilities - Please take care of personal toileting before proceeding to the course. DO NOT LITTER the courses with personal waste!
- Leave gates as they are found - if they are open, leave them open. If they are closed, close them after use.
- Disturb stock as little as possible and keep to marked courses.
- Cross fences at posts and climb closed gates at hinged end.
- Avoid damage to property and if anything is accidentally damaged notify a club official.
- Avoid littering and remove all rubbish.
- Look after children under your care (including children you have transported to the property).
- DO NOT take any animals (pet dogs etc.) onto private property.
- Stay away from farm buildings and machinery.
- Be careful and take into account the hazards that can be expected on farms, orchards, vineyards and other properties that are used for Cross Country courses.
- Refrain from smoking where there is any fire risk.

Hazards

Cross Country courses and the properties they are held on can be hazardous if care is not taken to act appropriately in terms of the conditions present when the property is used. Hazards include (but are not restricted to):-

- uneven ground
- muddy or slippery surfaces.
- barbed wire.
- steep slopes or unfenced banks.
- unfenced waterways, ponds and troughs.
- machinery either in operation or unattended.
- unattended equipment or tools.
- fuel stores or stores for other hazardous substances.
- vehicles.
- farm animals.
- fires.

USE OF PRIVATE PROPERTY IS A PRIVILEGE NOT A RIGHT.

Club members, guests and spectators who attend club races on private property or any other property are expected to use common sense and comply with the above requirements.
